

Founder & President of The Mackenzie Circle LLC, Kathi Laughman serves entrepreneurs and executives that are committed to continuously creating new pathways to success and significance.

Kathi's personal mission is to help people see and achieve more value in the rest of their story than they ever dreamed possible.

Drawing from her own life experience, Kathi uses humor and interaction to make the message relatable and relevant to each audience. They walk away with insights they may not have expected but will long remember.

Here are some comments from those that have experienced her insights and presentations:

"It must be gratifying to work with people the way you are. Preventing the downhill slide in their confidence, the finances, and relationships because you help them see what's right there all the time. Love it."

"The information you have provided is so powerful. It's like finding out the secret ingredient to the special sauce. Thanks for sharing!!"

"Kathi Laughman is one of the most insightful and articulate thought leaders that we have seen. She has an amazing ability to develop and present information in a manner that inspires critical thinking and gets to the core of turning challenges into opportunity."

Contact Information to book Kathi for your next live or virtual event:

Office: (281) 651-7629 / Cell: (713) 906-5670

E-Mail: kathi.laughman@mackenziecircle.com

Website/Blog: <http://www.mackenziecircle.com>

Speaker Bio: Kathi spent over 25 years in corporate America in the areas of strategic planning and business systems development. After being impacted personally with the loss of her executive position, she realized that she had a choice of waiting for the economy to recover or creating her own economy by starting her own business and serving others in a more meaningful way.

To realize that dream, she returned to school and finished a degree in Organizational Psychology at the age of 55, and went on to receive her Certification (CPC, ELI-MP) as a Professional Coach from iPEC Coaching. She also holds master practitioner status in their Energy Leadership program. Kathi is a member in good standing of the ICF (International Coaching Federation). She founded and is the President of The Mackenzie Circle, LLC, a dynamic company in the field of life coaching, is a published best-selling author and inspirational speaker.

Kathi serves charitable organizations as a life coach including Between Jobs Ministry (BJM) and the YWCA's W.I.L.D. program in Houston, Texas.

Most Requested Speaking Topics

Living G.L.A.D. – Your Guide to Creating & Living Tomorrow’s Dream Today!

Is your ultimate success something that you always see in the future? Does it always seem to be ahead of you instead of with you? Discover a better way. You CAN live TODAY like you want tomorrow to be. You CAN begin NOW claiming your success. Learn simple key strategies and power habits that can make a difference in your life (and lifestyle) beginning today!

3 Easy Steps to Your Success with C.E.P. (Continuous Expert Positioning)!

With today’s rapidly evolving markets, the path to being recognized as a leading authority or expert in any field requires constant nurturing and a continued commitment. Learn 3 steps to success that are proven, powerful and profitable!

5 Keys for Having the Lifestyle You Want on Your Terms in Any Economy in the new C Suite!

Markets have shifted. There is a new landscape where leadership roles are dramatically changing – some even disappearing. The result is unparalleled opportunity to take new roads and forge a pioneering path to success regardless of background, education and yes – in any economy. Enter the new “C Suite” with the 5 keys that unlock the secrets of this compelling opportunity to chart your own course and achieve the lifestyle and riches you want on your terms.

For more information about Kathi and her speaking topics, visit her website at <http://www.mackenziecircle.com/book-kathi-to-speak/>